The HMDA data about our residential mortgage lending is available for review online. The data shows the geographic distribution of loans and applications; ethnicity, race, sex, age, and income of our applicants and borrowers; and information about loan approvals and denials. HMDA data about many other financial institutions is also available online.

For more information, visit the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's website at: www.consumerfinance.gov/hmda. HMDA data can be used to help determine if the Bank is adequately meeting the housing credit needs of its CRA assessment area. Electronic access to this data is one example of the government's continuing effort to reduce paper. The CRA Officer can help you access the Bank's HMDA data online. More information can also be found at www.ffiec.gov/hmda and www.cfpb.gov/hmda.

Under the CRA regulations, you are entitled to review the Bank's CRA Aggregate & Individual Institution Disclosure reports for the past five calendar years. This data can be used to help determine if the Bank is adequately serving the small business, small farm, and community development credit needs within its CRA assessment areas. CRA data is maintained on a federal website and electronic access is an example of the government's continuing effort to reduce paper. The CRA Officer can help you access this information, or you can access this information directly at: www.ffiec.gov/cra
